On December 13, 2022, creditor Paul Nguyen (“Creditor Nguyen”) filed an ex parte request for order shortening time (Dkt. #128) for hearing on his Motion for Relief from Automatic Stay with Respect to Rents (Dkt. #127). The request for shortened time is denied based on:

Creditor Nguyen’s failure to file the declaration required by BLR 9006-1(c) stating:

- (1) The reason for the particular enlargement or shortening of time requested;
- (2) Previous time modifications related to the subject of the request, whether by stipulation or Court order;
- (3) The effect of the requested time modification on the schedule for the case or proceeding; and
- (4) Where the request is not made by stipulation, the efforts made to speak with the respondent and, if the movant has spoken with the respondent, the reasons given for any refusal to agree to the request.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT for the Northern District of California

1 Creditor Nguyen has not fully complied with the requirements.

2 The Chapter 7 Trustee and Creditor Nguyen would benefit from addressing the stay
3 issue on the standard briefing schedule set forth in Bankruptcy Local Rule 4001-1.

4 Upon consideration of the pleadings and based on the foregoing, it is

5 ORDERED that Creditor Nguyen's request for order shortening time is denied.
